

Discover & Explore GRADUATE LIFE

The College of Engineering

Student Overview

Graduate Enrollment: 2,045

Male: 1,586 (78%) Female: 456 (22%)

Underrepresented Minorities: 204 (10%)

Degrees Awarded: 649

Masters: 438 (67.5%) PhD: 211 (32.5%)

Based on full-time and part-time students 2015-16.

Academics and Degree Programs

Choose from 16 PhD and 19 Masters degree programs across 17 departments of study.

www.eng.vt.edu/gradstudies/degrees

Research and Faculty

Communicate with faculty who specialize in research you are interested in.

www.eng.vt.edu/facultyresearch

www.eng.vt.edu/research

Funding

Fellowships, assistantships and scholarships are available based on academic standing.

www.eng.vt.edu/gradstudies/funding

International Research Internships

Help solve real-world challenges with the International Research Experience for Students (IRES) or an overseas internship.

www.eng.vt.edu/international/ires

www.eng.vt.edu/international/internships

Apply

Use the Virginia Tech Graduate School online application form.

www.eng.vt.edu/apply

Diversity and Inclusion

Numerous academic and social programs exist to help grow a vibrant engineering community.

www.eng.vt.edu/diversity

University Programs

Graduate Life Center (GLC)

As the hub for graduate student life across the university, the GLC assists with International issues, Health & Wellness, student housing, Access to student groups, and more.

www.graduatelifecenter.vt.edu

Career Services

Each year 250-350 employers interview students through the On-Campus Interview Program (OCI). Professional development seminars and workshops especially for graduate students are also offered.

www.career.vt.edu/GraduateStudents

Life in Blacksburg

With the cost of living index 8.5% below the national average (citydata.com), it is consistently ranked among the country's best places to live.

www.vt.edu/student_life/blacksburg.html

www.eng.vt.edu/GraduateLife