

Virginia Tech

College of Engineering

By the numbers

Virginia Tech is the home of the Commonwealth's leading College of Engineering and ranks among the top five suppliers of new B.S. degrees in the United States.

7,789

Total Undergraduate Enrollment in Fall 2015

60%
In-state

40%
Out of state

5

Our ranking in the Wall Street Journal's Top 25 Recruiter Picks for Engineering

523

Number of students in Honors

14

Number of Bachelor of Science degrees offered

$62,500

Median starting salary

20:1

Student to Faculty ratio

73%

Percentage of graduating students who have participated in a paid internship

393

Total number of professors including Associate and Assistant

15%

Percentage of graduating students who have participated in a co-op

47

Number of NCAA athletes

72

Number of countries represented outside of the US

96%

Percentage of graduating students who say their job is related to their major

17%

Percentage of graduating students continuing on to graduate school

#2

Virginia Tech's ranking in the Princeton Review's "Happiest Students" list